

ARCADIA Health Care awarded three-year CARF accreditation

Thomasville, North Carolina December 10, 2009-CARF International announced that ARCADIA Health Care has been accredited for a period of three years for Family, Personal Support, and Respite Community services. This is the first accreditation that the international accrediting body has awarded to ARCADIA Health Care.

This accreditation decision represents the highest level of accreditation that can be awarded to an organization and shows the organizations substantial compliance to CARF's standards. An organization receiving a Three-Year Accreditation has put itself through rigorous peer review process and has demonstrated to a team of surveyors during an on-site visit that it's programs and services are of the highest quality, measurable, and accountable.

ARCADIA Health Care is a National Private Duty Home Care company that has been providing Home Care and Staffing services for over thirty years. ARCADIA Health Care has seven locations in the state of North Carolina, Asheboro, Asheville, Greensboro, Mebane, Raleigh, Thomasville and Winston-Salem.

CARF is an independent, nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process that centers on enhancing the lives of the persons served. Founded in 1966 as the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities, now known as CARF. The accrediting body establishes consumer-focused standards to help organizations measure and improve the quality of their programs and services.
